Latest Economic Data report published

As per a recent World Economic Outlook report, global economic activity is projected to pick up pace in 2017 & 2018, especially in emerging markets and developing economies; this after a lackluster outturn in 2016. The Reserve Bank indicates that domestic GDP growth was 0,4% in 2016, rising to 1,2% in 2017 and 1,6% in 2018. In terms of unemployment South Africa and the North West Province recorded the same unemployment rate of 26,5 % in the fourth quarter of 2016 after the NW province gained 60,000 jobs.
