Sannatha Caters/Fashion Designs will doll you up

Sannatha caters/fashion designs is a registered company owned by Makotisannah Mputle. From her humble workshop in Geelhoutpark, Rustenburg, she designs fashion clothes, traditional clothes, fashionable cushions, curtains and so forth. From a young age, she always wanted to be an entrepreneur. While growing up she wanted to open a restaurant, but later discovered her strength and changed her mind, and thus registered her sewing company.

Ms Makotisannah Mputle
founder of Sannatha
caters/fashion design

Ms Mputle started sewing in 2005; She started out sewing aprons, curtains etc. In 2008 she halted the sewing for some time, until she realised that it was in her blood and that she loved doing it. She now runs a registered company and has grown from her small beginnings to sewing bags, accessories, cushions, shoes and even wedding and event attire.

She enjoys doing what she loves and to make people look beautiful. Make sure to get in touch with Sannatha caters/fashion design if you have an event to attend and need to look just sooo good.
