

COMPANY FEATURE: GOLDEN ERA PRINTERS

Golden Era Printers & Stationers is a tenant of the NWDC in Mogwase

Regarded as the heart of the Golden Era Group of companies, this division is the third-largest printing and packaging company in Southern Africa.

They use the latest cutting edge technologies to produce world-class commercial packaging for major brands ranging from soaps to cereals.

DIRECT JOBS: 1 680

OCCUPIES RENTAL SPACE OF > 70 000 M²

Situated in the Bodirelo Industrial area in Mogwase, this 100% black-owned company has grown from humble beginnings to a major manufacturer and serious competitor in the market.

Their Mogwase facility specialises in lithographic, flexographic and high tech digital printing, manufacturing high volumes of folding cartons and adhesive labels for major food, beverage and cosmetic brands. All pre-production of the printing artwork is done on site.

The company has tapped into the market of supplying production line-ready folding cartons and product labels to its clients. Product styles include wet and dry foods, beverages, cosmetics, pharmaceuticals, electronics, detergents and confectionary. Their latest state-of-the-art die cutting equipment enables them to pre-cut cartons on site as part of their client deliverables.

Finished packaging products, ready to be added to clients' production lines are shipped to all major centres in South Africa while SADC export destinations include Namibia, Botswana, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

Golden Era Printers & Stationers has been a tenant for over three decades, occupying the Mogwase factory since 1984.

For more information on this article, contact:

Annemarie Marx: Communications Specialist, NWDC

014 594 2570