Situated in the Badiri Small Industries, Shop 9 in Temba, MEK is the trading name for Leamorato Pty Ltd. The company is proudly continuing the client service and stationary supply legacy of MEK & J Trading CC after the untimely death of its founder, Mr M E Khotle.

The company is managed by the formidable son and daughter team of Lerato and Shoeshoe Khotle. Together with their devoted employees, they have continued the operations and look forward to upholding and improving the standards that their father had built.

Lerato and Shoeshoe believe in giving back to the community. They make a deliberate effort to offer their clients quality tools for success. They go out of their way to source the best possible resources to move South Africa from a third world to a first world country. In doing so, they play their part to eliminate poverty, illiteracy, and their related challenges.

MEK's clients include schools, private business and public institutions. MEK's objective is to maintain and create good relationships with their customers and to ensure profitable growth. As their inward focus, MEK is committed to creating a workplace in which no employee shall be denied employment, growth opportunities, or benefits. They strive to create an environment for their staff where all individuals with their various abilities can develop rewarding careers at all levels regardless of their background, race and gender.

MEK has been a tenant of the NWDC from 2006, renting in the Badiri Small Industries, Shop 9 in Temba, Babelegi. Contact them on 012 717 7952 or via email on mekleamo@gmail.com
