Benki Trading Kitchen specialises in carpentry. Their mission is to expand their business and become the local supplier of wooden boards, cabinet fittings, and door handles. They currently travel to Hartswater or take a taxi to Johannesburg to purchase wooden boards and cabinet fittings.

Keitumile Sephiri and Benedick Mokgosi

Benedick and Keitumile formed their partnership in 2005 when both men decided to take up the challenge and form a carpentry business.

Relying on word of mouth marketing, their business gradually took off. Soon it was time to move to bigger premises and in 2010, Benki Trading Kitchen took occupancy with the NWDC.

Benedict creates his designs based on finding out what the client's needs and expectations are and then viewing the premises where the furniture will be stored. His designs are then drawn out and measured by hand. All furniture is made in the factory and then erected on site.

Benki Trading Kitchen currently has a staff compilation of four, including the owners. This will soon change however, should their dream of expansion realise.

To make an appointment for any carpentry needs, contact Benedick on 083 544 7736 or Keitumile on 073 515 6858.
