“Look at your skills sets, experience and passion before you venture into entrepreneurship, then follow your dream” – Lebo Monaunwa.

TSHISEGO Strategic Investment Group is a well-established business offering a basket of services within various spheres of business.

Situated in Boikhutso Location, Lichtenburg, in the Ngaka Modiri Molewa district, this 100% black empowered company is the brainchild of sole director and experienced businessman, Lebo Monaunwa.

Lebo Monaunwa

TSHISEGO Strategic Investment Group (TSHISEGO) is a well-established company specialising in marketing, events management, the supply of audiovisual equipment and general suppliers.

Lebo Monaunwa started his career working for large companies such as Sun International, Tsogo Sun, Old Mutual and Gautrain where he gained the necessary skills as a contract manager. Having a dream and passion to provide impeccable service and superior products in the business market, Lebo realised that he has requisite skills (acquired from his experience within hospitality, rail, financial and security industries), drive and talent as a consummate professional to become a generalist entrepreneur.

Lebo then proceeded in opening his own business as a specialist supplier of an array of products ranging from cleaning material to safety and security supplies. Event planning and the supply of equipment for events are also among his areas of specialty.

Being the professional and passionate person that he is, Lebo meticulously plans each course of action in his business. Personal consultation is a priority and the first step towards assessing the client’s wants and needs. After obtaining specifications from his clients, Lebo proceeds with a visit to the client’s premises to ascertain and confirm specifications/artwork. Subsequent to the latter, Lebo then delivers the product/service upon receiving the authorised purchase order. This hands-on approach has been very economical and efficient for business.

Working alongside their clients to achieve exceptional results, this committed team endeavors to deliver the highest quality of work whilst ensuring that deadlines are met.
