Mo the Planner is a company 100% owned by a young black woman named Morwadi Kobedi, who was raised by her grandparents in Dwarsberg as her mother was working. She moved in Rustenburg when she was doing her Grade 7. Mo the Planner was registered in July 2019 after Morwadi realised her love for working with people from different backgrounds and turning their visions into reality.

Mo The Planner is a deco and events planning company. What makes us unique is the quality of our work at affordable prices. We give the middle and average people the same opulence as the upper class at the affordable price.

We are targeting young and vibrant people who want the best things in life. We are also looking to work with big companies when they host events. We advertise our business on social media (Facebook and Instagram) and by word of mouth.

So far we have done birthday events, baby showers, weddings, private events etc.
