Kamogelo Guest House is a 100% black owned company by Aquila Rally Kgoadigoadi. The guest house was opened for the public in January 2001. The business idea came in 1994 after we hosted our sister church from America who came to visit our church in Mogwase. Some of our rooms were then converted to host the guests.

Kamogelo Guest house is a three star graded guest house with thirteen (13) bedrooms and it is situated in Mogwase. Each bedroom has its own TV set and a bar fridge. The guesthouse offers sleeping accommodation with breakfast and lunch & dinner on request.

The guesthouse won the ETEYA (Emerging Tourism Entrepreneur Year Award) twice as a runner up in 2001 and 2005. The 2001 win afforded the guesthouse the opportunity to go and exhibit in Berlin, Germany in 2002 sponsored by The South African Tourism Association.
